Dear [redacted]

STAT

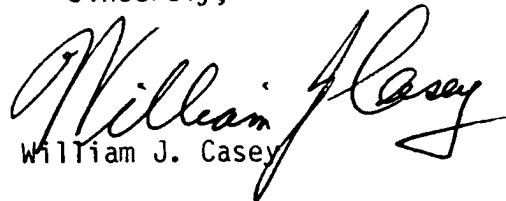

I was pleased to learn from [redacted] that you have agreed to serve on my Science and Technology Advisory Panel, and I want to take this opportunity to welcome you on board officially.

STAT

I rely on STAP to give me an independent view of important S&T matters. The Panel has provided sound advice in the past year on topics such as mobile missiles and the Strategic Defense Initiative, and the group will consider issues of similar significance in the coming months. I am sure that your perspective and background will add unique insight to the Panel's work.

Once again, welcome aboard. I look forward to meeting you at the next STAP meeting and to working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
